

THE KIRK KONNECTION

Editor: Carolyn Marnon

April 2019

I need thee every hour, most gracious Lord;
No tender voice like thine can peace afford.

(Refrain)

I need thee, O I need thee;
Every hour I need thee;
O bless me now, my Savior,
I come to thee.

2. I need thee every hour, stay thou nearby;
Temptations lose their power when thou art nigh.

3. I need thee every hour, in joy or pain;
Come quickly and abide, or life is vain.

4. I need thee every hour; teach me thy will;
And thy rich promises in me fulfill.

5. I need thee every hour, most Holy One;
O make me thine indeed, thou blessed Son.

Yesterday we closed morning worship with this hymn, penned in 1872 by Annie Hawks. As I sang the words I could not help but think about our annual discussion and commemoration of Jesus' journey through the wilderness, a journey that we want to understand; a journey upon which we have expressed a desire to accompany our Savior. We have discussed during sermon time the need to seize this opportunity (as we always should) to grow closer to Jesus in this time as Jesus draws nearer to the Cross.

What struck me during our hymn, though, was the dissonance between our sung words and our actions. We claim – and rightfully so – that we need Jesus “every hour.” But do we truly seek Him every waking hour? Do we walk with Him when we’re driving, or out at the grocery store, or at our children’s extracurricular events?

During each refrain of our hymn I wondered if even I personally behave as though I need Jesus every hour. And, sadly, I was forced to guiltily conclude that I take breaks from my walk with my Savior.

I find that even I personally, as a pastor, occasionally take what could only be called a “vacation” from this supposed need that I so boldly proclaim in song. I get more upset than I should with bad drivers, I foster a ridiculous code of personal etiquette when it comes to restaurant, grocery or other store behavior, and I even silently judge others on a beautiful day at the park when they are violating my code. I can promise you that there is no Jesus in any of this, and thus I must confess that I am most certainly not acting as though I want to be with Him “every hour.”

Continued.....

As I had these thoughts, however, the truth was made ever clearer to me that I do indeed NEED my gracious Lord every hour, even when my actions make it obvious that the all-too-human part of me does not necessarily want Jesus there.

Why is this? Why would I want Jesus to stay home while I go out on the town for a little while? Maybe I subconsciously believe that if I put Christ to the side for a few hours here or there I won't feel so guilty if I silently (or not so silently) judge the behavior of others. Maybe I give myself a free pass for saying or doing something that deep down I know is wrong. If I cut off that connection to Jesus - for just a little while - then I can just relax and give in to the sin that is always on my doorstep, beckoning me to come out and play. ...and, when I've gotten it out of my system and am ready to behave like a Christian once more, I open up that connection once more, as though I'm removing a cloak that somehow hides my sin. "See, Lord, I'm here! Reporting for Christian duty, Sir!"

Thus I NEED Jesus every hour, ere my muscles for sinning are stretched and oiled and raring to go out and do their worst. The more hours we spend away from our Savior, the farther we will wander from His loving, sheltering arms: arms that save us from ourselves, arms that save us from our sin.

Jesus never takes a vacation from us. Why, even for an hour, would we take a vacation from Him when the danger of sin threatens to overtake us if we do?

In this season, may the dissonance between our actions and our words cease to exist. As our mouths proclaim that we need Jesus every hour, may our conduct become consistent with our comprehension of and belief in this truth...even when it's conduct that cannot be outwardly seen. What we say and do in our hearts may be hidden from others, but the Lord sees it all.

As we march through the wilderness, as we journey toward the Cross and as we walk with Jesus let us prove to Him that we know our sinful selves need him every hour of our lives. But I say let's do more than that. May our words and our actions - today and always - prove to Christ that we do not just need Him present with us every hour. May our lives be living proof that we want Him there.

Middelburg Care Village Update

Kirk of Our Savior has supported Middelburg Care Village (Middelburg, Mpumalanga, South Africa), since late 2017. It has been difficult to maintain regular communication with the village, but the children want the Kirk to know that they are aware of who we are and are thankful for all that we've contributed in order to make their lives better. As MCV grows and thrives we are optimistic that, under God's direction, our relationship with the village can do the same.

To see the video of the children thanking the Kirk, visit our Facebook page.

GAME OFF!

There will not be a Family Fun Night in April due to the 3rd Friday being Good Friday.

Classy Lassies and Grazers

April 24

Classy Lassies and Grazers will next come together for their monthly lunch date on Wednesday, March 27. All are welcome! Come alone or bring a friend.

Meet at 11:30am in the church lounge.

The Per Capita amount for 2019 for the Presbytery of Detroit will be $29 per person.

The Presbytery has increased the amount of Per Capita that is due from each member in 2019. Per Capita provides administrative support to the mission of the Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly. Among other things Per Capita provides office and clerical needs, accounting services for mission, and support to helping congregations find new pastors as well as assist candidates to prepare for the ministry. The Per Capita charge that the Kirk recommends is based on that assessed by the Presbytery. For 2019 the amount will increase to $29 a member, a two-dollar increase over the past year. Please pay this amount at your convenience during the early part of 2019 using the envelope provided in your pledge envelope box or any other envelope that you mark as Per Capita. Thank you.
